Mehmet Sönmez, Eurobank Tekfen CEO:

“Eurobank Tekfen has taken its place among Turkey's fastest-growing banks with its capital increase, set to be completed by the end of the second quarter of 2011”

With this statement, Mehmet Sönmez is indicating that the capital increase will bring Eurobank Tekfen's paid in capital from 380,000,000 TL to 570,000,000 TL. Moreover, he stated that this increase would strengthen Eurobank Tekfen's stance as one of Turkey's strongest banks in terms of capital equity. Sönmez added that upon this boost in capital, they would expand their operations with new investments in different fields in 2011.

Eurobank Tekfen Adds Strength to SMEs.

Mehmet Sönmez expressed Eurobank Tekfen's desire to be the primary bank and consultant of SMEs. He stated, “Eurobank Tekfen is a customer-oriented bank that listens to its customers, understands their needs and provides products and services tailored to these needs. We believe that the primary expectation of small businesses from banks is for them to be not only places where they can obtain banking products and services but also from which they can receive consultancy services. As Eurobank Tekfen, we undertake this mission. We draw out a map suitable to the business's industry and provide them with consultations in order to increase their strength.”

Eurobank Tekfen's branches increase to 57

With its 57 branches throughout Turkey, Eurobank Tekfen continues to meet its customers' financial needs with a “solution partner” approach. In parallel with increasing its paid in capital to initiate retail banking activities and increase its branch network, Eurobank Tekfen continues to improve its SME loan share in terms of both its business volume as well as its total banking loans.
